Percentage of educated unemployment to total unemployment

2392. SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA:
SHRI SOM PAL:
SHRIMATI MIRA DAS:
SHRI SARADA MOHANTY:

Will the Minister of PLANNING AND PROGRAMME IMLEMENTATION be pleased to state:

(a) what is the percentage of educated unemployment to the total unemployment as on date;

(b) whether it is a fact that there is a paucity of vocational training institutes and schools in India; and

(c) if so, what are the plans to reduce the shortage of such infrastructure?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING AND PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTION (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ): (a) On the basis of the results of the last comprehensive survey on employment and unemployment conducted by the Natoinal Sample Survey Organisation in 1987-88, it is estimated that educated unemployed constitute around 40 per cent of the total unemployed.

(d) and (c) There may be a shortage of the voaction al training institutes and schools in the country and the facilities available therein may not be sufficient for the existing and emerging menpower requirements. However, there has been continuous increase in the number of ITIs and their seating capacity. The Directorate General of- Employment and Training, Ministry of Labour, is implementing a comprehensive Vocational Training Project assisted by World Bank since 1989-90 with the aim of strengthening and upgrading the existing infrastructure to meet the demand of skilled craftmen. The Government has also accorded high priority to vocationalisaton of secondary education. Since 1988, a Centrally Sponsored Scheme has been introduced under which 100 per cent assistance is given to States to start vocational education programme.

In addition to vocational courses at + 2 level (Higher Seceondary, the Central Government proposes to start non-formal, flexible and need based programmes of vocational education to cater to t he needs of women, rural areas and deprived sections of society.
